The lesson is based on 2 Corinthians chapter 1. Why do I suffer? Does God really care for me? If God is good, why do bad things happen? We have all heard about the person who was instantly healed by God... but I have never experienced it. God seems to make me want to sweat for peace, and joy. I think the real truth is I would not appreciate instant healing. Oh, I would be grateful for a month or two, but then new worries in this life would choke out my joy and steal my peace. So, God and I have to work daily on my issues of insecurity, and basically a need for control. As I ebb and flow in my journey out of myself, I obtain a comfort from God that is meant to be shared with others. Paul says it like this..." Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of all mercies and the God of all comfort. He comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any kind of affliction, through the comfort we ourselves receive from God."
