

A clay sculpture of a young child with a monkey-like face, resting their chin on their hands. The sculpture is the central focus of the image, set against a blurred background of a similar material. The child's eyes are closed, and their expression is serene. The hands are positioned under the chin, supporting the head. The overall tone is warm and earthy, matching the reddish-brown color of the clay.

C. S. Lewis.

The Screwtape Letters

"Apparently this Oxford don and Cambridge professor is going to be around for a long time; he calls himself a dinosaur but he seems to speak to people where they are."
